

DevOps Resume

6 1/2 Avenue, Manhattan's Street

(646) 211 – 9110

dusan.svoboda@gmail.com.

Professional Summary :

- Developers with interest in deployment and system administration with a passion for scripting and coding.
- Designed and developed automated deployment and scaling process.
- Collect the new technologies and tools, and introduce them to the company which will improve the product quantity and work efficiency.
- Trained new employees and worked with them on new web-projects.
- Started a program called knowledge management for helping the new developer and current developer to develop their knowledge on the product.

Key skills :

- Configuring Linux Slackware web servers.
- Developing applications for Android systems.
- Creating C code and javascript.
- Developed deployment utilities using Ruby, Bash, and Python.
- Experience with automation tools and web languages.

Education :

Bachelor of Engineering in computer science engineering, Brenau University, Washington.

Professional Experience

3.5 years work experience with ABC Corporation as DevOps engineer.

Key Areas :

- Understanding and efficiency in open communication.
- Being comfortable with frequent, code testing and deployment.
- Ability to use open source technology, tools, and scripts.
- Fast grasping automation tools.
- Being comfortable with code testing and deployment.
- System management skills.

Accomplishments:

- Established an IT team to support regional operations.
- Troubleshooting the issues and technical problems.

DevOps Resume secrets you need to know :

- Showcase transparency in Employment Gaps (if any).
- Bold the most recent job titles you have held.
- Highlight your accomplishments and responsibilities.
- Make it clear in the 'Objectives' that you are qualified for the types of jobs you are applying.
- Employ Business Analysis terminology to speak about experiences in Resume.
- Invest time in highlighting the most relevant skills.

- Your Resume must showcase the critical field competency.